

Save Even More With ASM!

1. What is the current investment limit for ASM?

Investors can save up to RM300,000 in ASM starting 1 August to 31 October 2023.

2. Why is there is limit after 31 July, instead of allowing unlimited investment in ASM?

The limit provides an opportunity for those who have not had the chance to open an account, while also benefiting those who wish to save more in ASM.

3. What are the terms & conditions to invest in ASM?

From 1 August until 31 October 2023, every investment in ASM is subject to the following terms & conditions:

- Individual limit is set at RM300,000.
- The limit is inclusive of all investments made since 1 May 2023.
- The limit is not affected by any withdrawal made during the period.
- Switch-in or transfer transactions are not allowed.
- ASNB reserves the right to change/uplift the limit as and when deemed necessary.

4. How can I make the additional investment in ASM?

You can invest via the myASNB digital platform, internet banking, or over-the-counter at ASNB and agents' branches nationwide.

5. Is investment via Financial Planning Solution Package (FPSP) subjected to the additional investment limit?

No, investors can make investments via FPSP package without affecting the investment limit.

6. What is the investment limit after 31 October 2023?

There is no limit. However, successful investments are subject to the availability of ASM units.
